WEDNESDAY MAY 15

7:30 p.m. (ABC-TV) Disneyland: "Antarctica—Past and Present." A documentary of South Polar exploration leading to and including the current United States inquiry of Navy Task Force 43.

10:00 p.m. (CBS-TV) Twentieth Century Fox Hour: "The Great American Hoax" is a comedy about an aging man who decides to resist his automatic retirement at 65. 1. What is the popular American image of old age? How do we romanticize it? How do we really feel about it? Give evidence from advertisements, movies, television, news stories, personal experience. 2. What do the terms "automatic retirement" and "company policy" really mean? Give other examples of business language that evade personal contact and individual responsibility. Is such evasion good, bad, necessary? 3. Is John Hodges' revolt credible? Is his impersonation or its motivation convincing? 4. Compare this play with Elmer Rice's "The Adding Machine" for technique, point of view, social criticism, credibility of resolution. For related materials, see Today, May 17 and 24, and Home, May 22.

THURSDAY MAY 16

3:00 p.m. (NBC-TV) Matinee Theatre: A film adaptation of Charlotte Bronte's "Jane Eyre," the orphaned girl who, after becoming a teacher and governess at mysterious Thornfield, inherits a fortune and marries happily.

WATCH FOR THESE:

May 27 (CBS-TV) Studio One: Roger Hirson's "The Weston Strain" is the drama of a young writer who foregoes publication of his first novel rather than compromise his ideals by editing and expurgating his manuscript. Study Questions: 1. What is "conventional" society? In what ways are George's family and his home town conventional? Give specific attitudes, dialogue, ethical values as examples. 2. Compare Roger Hirson's conventional people with other authors', e.g., Arthur Miller, Ring Lardner, Sherwood Anderson, Sinclair Lewis, Thomas Wolfe, Paddy Chayefsky, or Tad Mosel. Compare, particularly, each author's awareness of complexity of character. Does Hirson stereotype his characters? 3. What is "the Weston strain"? Is it completely admirable? Is it believable? Is George's last change of mind clearly motivated? How do you react to the values of the "proper" people? 4. Describe two minor ironic situations in the play that illuminate the work as a whole. 5. Discuss George's ideas on censorship. On condensation of manuscripts. On public invasion of personal privacy. Are his views popular in America today? Why?

May 27 (NBC-TV) Producers' Showcase: "Festival of Magic," with Ernie Kovacs presiding.

May 28 (NBC-TV) Matinee Theatre: "Gwendolen Harleth's Story" from George Eliot's "Daniel Deronda."
